

Outsiders

Fanfarlo

You fell in love before you noticed
You crossed the road all empty-handed

They look quite calm but they are so pissed off
Like a statue in a pond

You ended up with a machine gun

In the blink of an eye
If I blink I will die

You fell in love before you noticed
You tied your life, you tied your life

But somethings gonna ???

In the blink of an eye
If I blink I will die
