The Thrill Is Gone

Fantasia

Somethings going on; And Im not saying your to blame I know Im not your girl, I know your not my man But somethings wrong, I can't explain

After the waste of time, love lets keep it plain (Don't wanna play) Cause boy I'm grown and ya, damn near twice my age So tell me what's happening

So let me know just why i'm feeling strange Just let me know boy if your feelings changed Because I feel the way I feel, And I wont let it go until You let me know cause it ain't feeling the same

It's gone-e Along with games the cars the lies, the thrill is gone So gone-e Though it was fun but now we're done the thrill is done

Was is it just chase, You acting like you need some space Perhaps it was the fact, you want what you can't have And I won't let you get your way Why do you pick me up just to cast me away (the love I gave) Never quite enough, you really got me stuck I need for you to set it straight.

But let me know just why i'm feeling strange Just let me know boy if your feelings changed Because I feel the way I feel, And I wont let go it until You let me know cause it ain't feeling the same

It's gone Along with games the cars the lies, the thrill is gone So gone-eeeeeeeeeeeee Though it was fun but now we're done the thrill is done

A cocktail keeps me company While the piano man plays one for me So similar situation must've sent you Cause this is too cool to be coincidental

And Oh yes let's not forget You look like been dipped in hot chocolate And I means lots of it So instead of stay we did the opposite At a red light but I didn't stop for Sh*t!

It's cool, I don't kiss and tell Oh lord, you don't listen well It's pleasure...Pains not in my planning Damn I thought we had a understanfing

It's gone Along with games the cars the lies, the thrill is gone So gone Though it was fun but now we're done the thrill is done
