I need to save myself from me before i ruin this relationship yu steady me down this from the start i need to make in my empty heart everytime i try to run away something inside me says i need to stay so maybe i should listen for a change theres no pain that love cannot rearrange i gotta convince myself that its okay to love again and if i fall on the way ill try again

this time i deserve to be happy , to be loved once again love has found its way to me ohhh ...

im holding on im gone fight try to be strong
this time
im not giving up on this ooohh ... this time (this time] im lov' im loving every minute with you its hard to convince my heart that this is true i know wen love that
