

Don't Look Now

Far East Movement

Don't look now.

I saw you dancing on that speaker box, girl what's your name?
I see you texting on that B.B.M., can we exchange?
I got two glasses at my table, can I show you the way?
Tonight's the night to let it go, go, girl it's okay.
Yeah, I'm not looking for no strings, you're not looking for a ring
If you're ready for this fling, then meet me in the back.
I never knew it'd be like this, such an unexpected twist
Started off with just a kiss, I don't know how to act.

Dear heart, I know I said I'd take it slow
I know I swore on everything I own
But I can't resist, how's just one kiss?
But don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone.
Don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone
Don't look now
I can't resist, how's just one kiss?
Don't look now.

My heart is pumping like that bass before I pick you up
The way we stole each others hearts we playing Stick em up
I take a shot of Ciroc to get me in the zone now
She took a step out the door, from head to toe she's all 'wow'
I'm not looking for no strings, you're not looking for a ring.
If you're ready for this fling, then meet me in the back.
I never knew it'd be like this, such an unexpected twist
Started off with just a kiss, I don't know how to act.

Hey, uh, I know I promised you I'd take it slow
I know I swore on everything I own
But I can't resist, how's just one kiss?
But don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone.
Don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone
Don't look now
I can't resist, how's just one kiss?
Don't look now.

Somethin' 'bout this girl
She shakin' up my world
She got me doin' things I never did before.
Damn, there's somethin' 'bout this girl
She shakin' up my world
She got me out my zone, I'm losin' all control.

Somethin' 'bout this girl
She shakin' up my world
She got me doin' things I never did before.
Damn, there's somethin' 'bout this girl
She shakin' up my world
She got me out my zone, I'm losin' all control.

Hey, uh, I know I promised you I'd take it slow
I know I swore on everything I own

But I can't resist, how's just one kiss?
But don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone.
Don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone
Don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone
Don't look now
You've got me going, I'm going, I'm gone
Don't look now.
