

In My Darkest Hour

Farmer Boys

Can you forgive me
For all I've done
Give me absolution
Just this once

Take me in your arms
Back into your fold
Here where I belong

When the stars above
Start falling from
The crown that they adorn
I'll be waiting

In my darkest hour
When you were gone
When I lost the power
That I had won

Beyond the sky
Time passes me by
There where I belong

When the stars above
Start falling from
The crown that they adorn
I'll be waiting

When the earth stands still
And the end is fulfilled
I'll be waiting on the shore

When the earth stands still
And the end is fulfilled
I'll be waiting on the shore
