

Once And For All

Farmer Boys

I walk the earth with a devil at my side
I'm on my search and he's still not satisfied
He will not stop until he's satisfied

I thought I should, I knew I could
After trial and error the terror remains
I thought I could

I know you know
All the tears behind my fears
I know you know
All the tears behind my fears

Once and for all
Recognize the price I've paid
I've been through it all
The rise and the fall

Once and for all
Recognize the price I've paid
Now I turn the page
Now you feel my rage

I walked the earth with a devil at my side
I exposed the nerve holding all the lies
He'll feel my pain before he dies

My ways have changed
My life's rearranged
Pack up your things
My ways have changed

I know you know
All the tears behind my fears
I know you know
All the tears behind my fears

Once and for all
Recognize the price I've paid
I've been through it all
The rise and the fall

Once and for all
Recognize the price I've paid
Now I turn the page
Now you feel my rage

Once and for all
Recognize the price I've paid
I've been through it all
The rise and the fall

Once and for all
Recognize the price I've paid
Now I turn the page
Now you feel my rage
