

If I Ever Fall In Love (With A Honky-Tonk Girl)

Faron Young

I know that cheatin' river runs by everybody's door
And I might just fall in there anytime
'Cause I'm the kind of man who makes decisions on his own
And I'd go with you if I were so inclined

Let me tell you this if I fall in that cheatin' river
I'm looking for a genuine pearl
You'll be the one, yes, you'll be the one
If I ever fall in love with a honky-tonk girl

True love never runs but one direction at a time
And right now I'm in love with someone else
But if I should ever lose the love I'm loving at this time
I know I'd never break it up myself

And I won't make any promises so I won't have one to keep
But I've seen some sudden changes in this world
You'll be the one, yes, you'll be the one
If I ever fall in love with a honky-tonk girl

You'll be the one, oh you'll be the one
If I ever fall in love with a honky-tonk girl
