

Let's Pretend We're Lovers Again

Faron Young

Let's pretend we're lovers again you're all alone and so am I
Let's forget bad memries and then we can be lovers if we try

One year ago I walked away from your arms
It hurt you so I know cause how you cried
But my pride just wouldn't let me say I'm sorry
But tonight our parting overruled my pride
Let's pretend we're lovers again...
Then we can be lovers if we try
