Some loves caused tears and pain some loves changed with the da

Your love won't be that way there will be no loneliness again
Sweet love and happiness...

Some loves blow in the wind once they light they're gone again
You came and love walked in and you changed the night to day ag

Some loves are foolish things sometimes they're tragic dreams
Your love is all I need what joy to know you'll always with me
