

Magnum Force

Fast Food Orchestra

All is broken...sky is bleeding and something bad and wrong is flying in the air...it can be painful for those who believe in believe in trust that's crumbling down from their hands...You just see the ghost of conscience everywhere You must cry but you don't know why so you say you want to break the chains and fly You must cry but see them everywhere