

Oh I've never told you I was alright
Since you have broken my heart
Any of your words have been healing
They made only mess there in my mind
No matter how hard I try
I can't forget about my fellings

Maybe you want same thing as I do
Maybe we can find the way how to make our love come truth
And maybe all your words were just misunderstood
And I'm stacked in a hoping sentimental mood

I wish I'd know that I have to let you go(out of my soul)
I wish I'd know that you won't love me anymore

Whatever I'll do won't be all right
Either I'll loose my mind
Or I will loose you darling
The middle way we're trying to walk on now
Is bringing me down you always hurt what is hurting

Maybe you want same thing as I do
Maybe we can find the way how to make our love come truth
And if it ain't so and my short life will be through
From all the things I've ever loved I will remember you

I wish I'd know that I have to let you go(out of my soul)
I wish I'd know that you won't love me anymore
