

Well, The more I try to change
Well, the more I feel the same
Each day like the one before
Til I don't wanna try no more

When working, tired and your feet are hurtin'
From runnin' all the time, yes, trippin out of your mind
Too many times to notice, how the lonely soul is
Love is all alive, it's waiting to arrive...

Tried everything, then tried it again
Been watching the flame burn to the end
Been wasting my bones, been takin my time

A bird from the ashes, burning to fly
Home from the sea, a thief in the night
Like Mr. Apiata, just doing what's right
My brothers and me, my sisters and I
We're waiting to arrive...

When working, tired and your feet are hurtin'
From runnin' all the time, yes, trippin out of your mind
Too many times to notice, how the lonely soul is
Love is all alive, it's waiting to arrive.
