

Another Day

Fat Joe

This is another day spent in the hood
Another day since I ran away
I'm feeling good today
I hear it but I'm here to stay

This is another day spent in the hood
Another day since I ran away
I'm feeling good today
I hear it but I'm here to stay

This is another day spent in the hood
Another day since I ran away
I'm feeling good today
I hear it but I'm here to stay

In my hood every day nigaz get locked down
Their friends hit on their girl and them knocked down
I hate to say you this quick
But you niggaz ain't gonna be shit
So much coke in the bar
That it makes you see sick
All I hear is sound waves and sounds of guns splashing
A girl went missing
But ain't nobody asking
Your little joy hit the bank
Said he needed cash
In the morning news I suppose he forget to scheme that Cause ignorance is blessed
... who stands just to get high
Cause your cracked care although nobody else cares
Put me on the screen but I'm still the same G
They thought I'd never see outside the...

This is another day spent in the hood
Another day since I ran away
I'm feeling good today
I hear it but I'm here to stay

This is another day spent in the hood
Another day since I ran away
I'm feeling good today
I hear it but I'm here to stay

Just another day living in the hood
Just another on the hood
I made you do another day

... all the bitches we collect, bitches weak of sex
Phones still... so it's best to send a text
Going through a beer, that calms you just like a king
Bucket full of crabs
Money sacks that we save
I could have fished you out
... as long as the bitches smiling
I came for the money
I am a new plug
I walk the same block

Hold the same train
And I fuck the same bitches with the same cane

This is another day spent in the hood
Another day since I ran away
I'm feeling good today
I hear it but I'm here to stay

This is another day spent in the hood
Another day since I ran away
I'm feeling good today
I hear it but I'm here to stay

Just another day living in the hood
Just another on the hood
I made you do another day
You'll do it another day
