Into Your Arms

Faydee

[Chorus x2:]
Every time you walk through the door
I rise and I fall right into your arms (where I belong)
When I feel I'm falling apart
You put back the pieces right into my heart, right into my heart

I turn the other way
'Cause when I thought it won't be easy
There you were, lookin so pretty
Did you have to make me wait?
'Cause it only makes me weaker
That's how I knew you were a keeper

Oh, you gave me life that I needed
My past you defeated
You gave me my reason to love
Oh, and I can't believe what I'm feelin
Gotta be dreamin
You can't be this perfect to love

[Chorus:]
Every time you walk through the door
I rise and I fall right into your arms (where I belong)
When I feel I'm falling apart
You put back the pieces right into my heart, right into my heart

Things have changed for the better
Way before we got together had to deal with another lover
I was just wishin she was you right now
And she took my heart and tore it up
You found it and you patched it up

Oh, you gave me life that I needed
My past you defeated
You gave me my reason to love
Oh, and I can't believe what I'm feelin
Gotta be dreamin
You can't be this perfect to love

[Chorus:]
Every time you walk through the door
I rise and I fall right into your arms (where I belong)
When I feel I'm falling apart
You put back the pieces right into my heart, right into my heart

When I feel I'm falling apart
I rise and I fall right into your, right into arms
When I feel I'm falling apart
I rise and I fall right into your, right into arms

Sometimes when I see ya, I can't believe I'm with ya
All the things we've been through won't be mixed, nothing else matters
Every time you cross my mind it makes me wanna love ya
Takes me to a place I though that I could only dream of

Oh, you gave me life that I needed
My past you defeated

You gave me my reason to love
Oh, and I can't believe what I'm feelin
Gotta be dreamin
You can't be this perfect to love

[Chorus x2:]
Every time you walk through the door
I rise and I fall right into your arms (where I belong)
When I feel I'm falling apart
You put back the pieces right into my heart, right into my heart
