

Oh Oh
Why, Why, Why
i have come for the rockoning
Sleep comes down but so does heavy dreams
Sleep comes down but so does heavy dreams
Sleep comes down but so does heavy dreams
Sleep comes down but so does heavy dreams

Forced affection on the sirens face
You seal affliction with a mask of hate
Here we started, now here we'll stand
You are the beast, I am the man
I stand victorious on stolen time

Oh
Can't know the feeling that's just yours and mine
Oh
So sick with sadness it replaces life
So sick with sadness it replaces life

Rain will come to bring our voices back
I shout the final threat to happiness
I need you now just like i always have
I need you now as i always have
I need you now as i always have

Please return to me
We drown before we sleep
The fear will never leave
For all those heavy dreams

Please return to me
We drown before we sleep
Here we started, now here we stand
You are the beast, I am the man

Please return to me
We drown before we sleep
Please return to me
We drown before we sleep
Ohhh Ohhh Ohhhh
