

Review Our Lives (epic)

Fear Before The March Of Flames

When does this book get good?
at the end of the chapter or the start of "ever-after"
BOOKS!
don't you know a picture is worth a thousand words Teach them when their young gods twisted game of hide and seek

5-4-3-2-1
Come out come out come out
Sign your name on the dotted line
There's no place left to hide
Alphabetical lies in numerical time
Come out come out come out
And everything will be fine

It's now or never
Make it now
It's now or never
Make it now
It's now or never
Make it now

And what if this is all there is we'll have to reevaluate
And if at first you don't succeed
Get on that horse and ride again

Stop!
Please will you take my hand
I thought of everything
Hear what we have to save?
Clean slates for living lies
We're leaving the past behind
Are you along for the ride?
Please will you take my hand
I thought of everything

It's now or never
Make it right
Make it now
