

540,000° Fahrenheit

Fear Factory

Witness a blinding flash
Sudden bright light from a blast
Pulsing radiation
Moving through cracks under skin
Feel the fire in the wind
Deadly kiss of scorching sands

Not a prayer of hope
Or redemption in your eyes
Hell exploded on this earth
To take all that's alive
Standing at the face of death
Terror stealing your last breath

Watch the firestorm
Incinerate you into ash

All that you know burns away into dust
So many lives
So many innocent
Burn...

Every particle returns
To it's natural form
Ashes into ashes
Blown away, just like the dust
Heaven burning with the sky
Hell is not the reason why

Feel the firestorm
Melting your spirit into glass

All that you know burns away into dust
So many lives
So many innocent
Burn...

So many lives
So many innocent

All that you know burns away into dust
So many lives
So many innocent
So many lives
So many innocent
So many lives
So many innocent
Burn...
Burn...
Burn...
Burn...
