Human Augmentation

Fear Factory

I am a being
My life has value
Seek as I seek the secret design
My purpose is to relate with out bitterness

Or partiality from any motives
To which I am far removed
Fueled by antagonism
Accelerated panic

Headed towards a catastrophic event Penetrating thoughts Negative impressions I don't feel

I can't shed a tear for all the unnumbered dead
Desperate and exhausted the human character lays wasted
Like emotional distortion
Death is perceptible with definable features
I've had all that I can take

Yet the pain remains My body is lacerated My mind is poisoned Ultimate revelations
