

Progression

Fear My Thoughts

whenever you think it's time to give in. All your hope drifted away into nothingness.
Nothing makes much sense at all
No way to find out of this misery
I've been on this point, too- yes I've been there
But now i make my own progression by making my own decision
Now i make my own decision by going my own way
And there are so many more ways- life is your chance- life is y our opportunity
So never give in if you've lost your way
When there's darkness- there must be light
For every pain- there'll be salvation
All the lies are seeking- the truth
And if you have been broken- just look ahead
And if you have been broken- just go on straight Never give in!
Never be paralyzed by yourself!
