

At War With The Thirst

Fearless Vampire Killers

When you go
Will you promise me the world
And make me cry
If you die
Bloody sheets
What I've give to make you bleed
And have you mine
Again

Go home
Go away
These demons that I can't destroy
Are sucking at my veins

As I kneel
At this veil where I conceal
All my wounds
That I bore for you
Draw your swords
I pray the devil makes me yours
And you'll be mine
Again

Go home
Go away
These demons that I can't destroy
Are sucking at my veins

Go go go
Go biting
Go biting

Go home
Go away
These demons that I can't destroy
Are sucking at my veins
Go home
Go away
These demons that I can't destroy
Are sucking at my veins
