

Feel Alive

Fearless Vampire Killers

Sense an attraction, hold the illusion.
Eyes locking heart starts skipping a beat
I'm living to pretend, all alone a moment cursed to end.

Feel a darkness folding around me
I'm taken, helpless fancy free
And now I'm at your side
First a kiss AT LAST I'M FEELING ALIVE.

Just forget the others they will only slow you down.
They'll never need to know, it's our little secret now.
I'll move any mountain and part the sea
Just to prove you're an angel when you're with me.

End of a moment, stand and deliver
Take my head lock me up and burn the key
A little piece has died, roll around I'm far too hard to hide.
I don't know what they hell is happening to me,
I wasn't thinking straight please just give me sympathy.
When we first met I just knew that we should be together
But whoever said forever lasts until the end of the night.

Just forget the others
Just forget the others
Just forget the others
Just forget....
JUST FORGET... they will only slow you down.
They'll never need to know, It's our little secret now.
I'll move any mountain and part the sea just to prove you're an angel when you're with me.
