

Neon In The Dance Halls

Fearless Vampire Killers

Rage of a melancholy voyeur to a suicide,
Stale is the lifeblood of a city being crucified,
Pale are the memories of people, who cry on and on,
Through these black and bleary nights,
But with illustrious intentions we descend..
We'll shine like neon in the dance halls,
A vision of the starburst,
Illuminating those cursed,
Neon in the dance halls,
A shock to the oppressors,
Adjudicating preachers,
Feel, let me feel something,
I can believe is real,
Feel, let me feel something,
Anything, that I can believe!
Charmed to encounter your acquaintance what a lovely dress,
Fair I must courageously declare that you'd look better bare,
Sad to see the mention of your nudity offends you so,
That won't matter when you're dead,
You'll be a warning to the curious,
A naked lifeless mess,
We'll shine like neon in the dance halls,
A vision of the starburst,
Illuminating those cursed,
Neon in the dance halls,
A shock to the oppressors,
Adjudicating preachers,
Feel, let me feel something,
I can believe is real,
Feel, let me feel something,
Anything, that I can believe!
Accursed you strive to right your wrongs through vicious actions,
Emboldened by our victories we charge on blinded,
The stench of sweet success - intoxicating, heady,
It will cloud our eyes,
We'll shine like neon in the dance halls,
A vision of the starburst,
Illuminating those cursed,
Neon in the dance halls,
A shock to the oppressors,
Adjudicating preachers,
NEON IN THE DANCE HALLS,
Neon in the dance halls,
NEON IN THE DANCE HALLS,
Neon in the dance halls,
Let me feel,
Let me feel,
Let me feel anything,
Let me feel,
Let me feel anything, that I can believe
