

Remember My Name

Fearless Vampire Killers

If you get up to go,
I want you to know,
Remember what I say,
You'll wish that you had stayed.

[You gotta show your respect to the system,
You gotta ditch all the friends you made,
'Cause when the man in the chair comes calling,
You better be praying he ain't gotta beef with you!]

I'm asking you in truth,
Where you might hope to stay?
In concert with the dead,
Or side with those who walk the day?
You look back icy eye holes,
Deep hatred in your gaze,
Defiant to the end.
An archetypal, single minded joke.

Remember my name,
As death you embrace,
Remember my face,
Remember my name,
'Cause I'll keep you in your grave,
Remember my name.

You got something about you,
You got something your hiding I see through,
And I freeze I'm suddenly clockin'
Recollecting the cause of our juncture.
You gotta taste for a bleeding good sir?
Consumption of a grim concoction-

Fury claim my soul,
And raise me higher, higher, higher, HIGHER!

Remember my name,
As death you embrace,
Remember my face,
Remember my name,
'Cause I'll keep you in your grave,
Remember my name.

You weave a tale,
Of stolen youth,
From the way you talk, I know it's the truth.

[What use is the truth?]
[What use is the truth?]

Remember my name,
As death you embrace,
Remember my face,
Remember my name,
'Cause I'll keep you in your grave,
Remember my name.

Remember,
Remember,
Remember my name,
Remember,
Remember,
Remember my name.

Remember my name,
As death you embrace,
Remember my name.
