

My Bleeding Heart Swims In A Sea Of Darkness

Feed Her to the Sharks

Watch as I wither away
And fall into darkness
Again...
When will I break away...
The chains to my dying heart?
Falling to darkness will I fade away?
When will I see this day...
Before my hope is lost?
Falling to darkness will I waste away?
Have I wasted my time watching others live?
They will surpass me
Have I been wasting?
I've been wasting my life
I am the sheep
Eaten by the wolves tonight
Release me
From this world
Just let me go
Free my eyes
From deception
Now I refuse to wait
In the shadows of my past
Falling to darkness will I fade away?
Now I must break away
And reclaim everything I've lost
(For I have wasted away)
When will I break away the chains to my heart?
My bleeding heart swims in a sea of darkness
(In the sea of darkness)
(Hope is not lost)
Swimming to save my life
My bleeding heart will never die
I won't succumb to the darkness
Watch as I break away
The chains to my heart
I will now embrace
And weather this storm
And you will die with a bleeding heart
Envious!!
