

One For The Ponces

Feed the Rhino

Release the dogs

They cannot touch you here

It's who we are,

So nail them to the floor with a smile on your face

It's just a game, remember the purpose, you don't be afraid

Make them crawl, make them talk

Hang from the rafters

They are the cancer

They'll leave you stranded you'll see

It's just a game, remember the purpose,

You don't be afraid to move all the pieces

Open the door, here comes the judge

Now you'll take that look off your face, you

He will judge you as you stand and shake, yeah!

Roll the dice!

Roll the dice!

Crawl, dog you crawl!

Crawl, dog you crawl!
