

Quiet

Feeder

When I lie back and close my eyes, it feels like
You're sending love back down to me.
I try to keep you there inside with me,
But you leave and it's so quiet tonight.
Conscience finds a place to hide inside,
Lonely as my thoughts divide tonight,
I hear you, never thought that I'd ever be alone.

She laid right here, right here,
Beside me in this bed.
I can still hear her voice, it echoes in my head.
It's left a hole, a space inside, buried the love,
Shut out the light.
I don't know where to turn.

And all the places that I've seen with you,
What I would give to have you by my side.
I stare at shadows as they twist... calling,
Imagination running wild tonight.
Conscience finds a place to hide inside,
Lonely as my thoughts divide tonight,
I hear you, never thought that I'd ever be alone.

She laid right here, right here,
Beside me in this bed.
I can still hear her voice, it echoes in my head.
It's left a hole, a space inside, buried the love,
Shut out the light.
I don't know where to turn.

I don't know where to turn.

If I let go, how will it end?
If I let go, how will it end?

She laid right here, right here
Beside me in this bed
I can still hear her voice, it echoes in my head

I'll wait for you to come
Cause I'm lost, my will has gone
I don't know which step to take
You're living in my head.

I walk with emptiness
Breathing the loneliness
Tell me where I belong
You're living in my head.

I'll wait for you to come
Cause I'm lost, my will has gone
I don't know which step to take
You're living in my head.
Living in my head...
