28, looking good
She's a fighter, she's a fighter, she's a..
It's been that way since she was born
Modern life broken lives
She carries a bruise upon her face
It's been that way since she was born

What are you gonna do?
I said what are you gonna do?

Barbarella
This is a call to you
To take away the pain
I'm giving it all to you
Tomorrow may be too late
Cast out the violence of youth
Into the ashes
This is a call to you

Suddenly I could see
She's a fighter, she's a fighter, she's a..
It's been that way since she was born
City lights, broken lives, so much sorrow on the streets
It's been that way since she was born

What are you gonna do?
I said what are you gonna do?

Barbarella
This is a call to you
To take away the pain
I'm giving it all to you
Tomorrow may be too late
Cast out the violence of youth
Into the ashes
This is a call to you

This is the right time
This is the right time

This is a call to you
To take away the pain
I'm giving it all to you
Tomorrow may be too late
Cast out the violence of youth
Into the ashes
This is a call to you

Barbarella
