

First, fuck you for asking, cause you know that aint right
I just refuse to be plastic for these rappers I dont like Anger management techniques developed out of spite
Rather kill you with kindness than kill you in a fight
So why you wanna punch these other rappers in their face?
Cause they fake as fuck, and a waste of space
Besides, fists, not guns, thats a change of pace
I been around the block, got a few dues paid
One of the few rappers left thatll do what I say
So is it Def Jux or the Living Legends that youre reppin?
Man Im all about good music, people and progression
I got friends from different sections but the West is where Im restin
Do you really think race is the reason you aint selling?
What, you tryina piss me off and put a end to this session?
Man, you heard this is for, cmon, next question
Alright, alright What was it like workin with Humpty Hump?
One hell of a artist, but a fucking drunk
Though he did get the video crackin, I wont front
Yeah, offered to my lap for some head just once
And I coulda got some pussy, but I was too fucked up
No, she never said thanks, my black ass never seen her
Thats why I moved on to my new real queen
Its my birthday fool, 316
Plus, the formula for every rap song that you sing

Priorities man, naw, Im kidding
Im tryina build heaven while the worlds still spinnin
This is still the beginning, still unraveling ribbon
The mission is to travel for as far as the vision
Man for all I know, that shit already passed
Its impossible to answer that question asked
We didnt you dumbass, go read the mag
Me and Ant did one record for beats and laughs
Well things felt wrong so we both had to move on
No love gone, everyday holds a new dawn
Family and friends make it past the front lawn
Business is done by the end of the last song
Is it the caffeine, the nicotine, the milligrams of tar?
No, its Selena, its Christina, its Serena in my car
Its the thick line between being a genius and a star
Man, fuck that shit Im just sittin at the bar
Writing these hits about self-inflicted scars
From the music, to the bus, to the stage, to the groupies
Im the same as I was back when nobody knew me
Shes the extra that gets to play the devil in my movies
Shes around, uptown, sipping a beer smoothie
