

Bitter End

Felt

If I was to say that the stars
Are never gonna shine
Then I would be saying
The world never could be mine
I'm saying the world never could be mine
Mesmerized by thoughts
Of a time when you were young
Still holding onto old attitudes
That you knew were wrong
They're old attitudes and you know they're wrong
You slashed a knife across it
And claimed that it wasn't mine
You said you'll kill someone
But the only thing you kill is time
I said that the only thing you'll kill is time
I'm steering clear of you
Even though you're my only friend
I feel change coming on
And it feels like the bitter end
I said that it feels like the bitter end
I said here it comes
It's the bitter end
