I will not stop until I've got everything that I need
Some say it's honesty, but I believe it's only greed
But if you listen to what I'm saying every day it must be honesty, but I'm not that sure any way

Take a look around
What are we coming to?
And we can stop it now
I do not think that we will

A new sun will arise and I will be there to see A sleeping signal shoots off
Bright fire awakens me
A moonlit castle slips and I know that isn't real
To be a fantasy is hardly what I'd term ideal

You've got it wrong
You see what you want to see
Move in closer now
Do you believe in reality?

I stand alone, and my only task is to succeed
Some say I've heard all that but you ain't heard that from me
And if I'm what you want, then come and take this call For we can stop all that We are all one, after all

Take a look around
What are we coming to?
And we can stop it now
But do we really want to?
