I Can't Make Love To You Anymore

I nearly cried When you lied You caught me Unaware The look in your eyes Of complete surprise It won't fool me Again Never again

I can't make love to you anymore I can't make love to you anymore I can't make it with you no more I can't make love to you anymore

Can't you see What it is That you're doing To me It's plain to see It's too late to choose Between him Or me Can't you see
