

She Deals In Crosses

Felt

To you it seemed so simple
Yours was just another life
You became a mother and a wife
Hey sister
Hey sister
Hey sister
What are you doing with yourself

I believe life's preordained
As such we haven't got a say
And noone dies for nothing
Not in my street anyway
Hey sister
Hey sister
Hey sister
What are you doing with your life
