You're all wised up you're pretty cool you're on the level you're nobody's fool you're my man 'cause you don't give a damn I never heard you talk bad about any of your friends that's not your line no you must be heaven sent I'm your greatest fan 'cause you don't give a damn I'm not adept with my fellow man I'm bereft of skill I'm a total sham oh if I can I don't want to give a damn
I want to be like you if I can, I don't want to give a damn.
