

The Fountain

Fences

My body glows and is swallowed by the mountain
Sometimes I fell like a sun a I can quit you when I wanna
I swear to good that I can stop
I guess I could always run

Walking home alone tonight while dancing the pines
Walking home alone tonight
Sometimes I feel like, sometimes I feel like a sun

Left the clothes at the bottom of the fountain
Our bodies burned by the sun
And we can split you when you wanna
Just cut the lark and duck the carps
I guess we could always run

Walking home alone tonight while dancing the pines
Walking home alone tonight
Sometimes I feel like, sometimes I feel like a sun

Wilkinson, Covington, just a pyramid
Born to run, [?]
Wilkinson, Covington, just a pyramid
Born to run, [?]

Walking home alone tonight while dancing the pines
Walking home alone tonight
Sometimes I feel like, sometimes I feel like a sun

Walking home alone tonight while dancing the pines
Walking home alone tonight
Sometimes I feel like, sometimes I feel like a sun