

Flowers Speak Louder Than Words

Ferlin Husky

(Flowers speak louder than words)

Flowers speak louder than words they say whether the red white or blue

Flowers speak louder than words they say that's why I send them to you

I send a bouquet of flowers hoping that they touch your heart

Well the flowers speak louder than words my dear tell me what k eeps us apart

(Flowers speak louder than words)

I send a bouquet of flowers...
