

Heart Full Of Love

Ferlin Husky

I got a sky full of sunshine a pocket full of roses a hand full of I love yous
I ain't got no rooms for no sad song singin' I got a heart full of love for you (A heart full of love for you)

Well I used to be sad man in my heart torn apart then I have st arted
To lovin' you and now it's true I got a heart full of love for you
I got a sky full of sunshine...

Well when your baby starts feelin' blue she feels like the worl d is fallin' through Well take her in your arms and whisper low that you love her so I got a sky full of sunshine...
I got a sky full of sunshine...
Yes a heart full of love for you a heart full of love for you
I got a heart full of love for you
