

Just A Bend Of The Road

Ferlin Husky

(It's just a bend of the road)
Are you weary and tired of living does it all seem to be thankless giving
Don't worry my friend it isn't the end it's just a bend of the road
Have you reached for someone's hand and found that's she don't understand
Keep reaching my friend it isn't the end it's just a bend of the road
It's never the end there's always one more bend
Another day another way a year or two
So walk another mile remember with the smile happiness can afford to lose you
At times when you're feeling so lonely and you long to find someone to love you only
Keep looking my friend it isn't the end
There'll may be someone around the bend of the road
There'll may be someone around the bend of the road
