

Dressing To Kill

Fey

Under the magic of a red moon hypnotized by the light this evening is on this evening is awake energized by the vibe feel so high.

Dressing to kill facing the night I'm leaving all my troubles behind

I'm dancing this feeling keeps me moving dancing the whole night I'm dancing this feeling keeps me grooving dancing the whole night long dancing the whole night.

This music running through our veins there's nowhere to hide I feel I'm burning losing control blowing your mind full of joy so alive feel so high.

Dressing to kill facing the night I'm leaving all my troubles behind

I'm dancing this feeling keeps me moving dancing the whole night I'm dancing this feeling keeps me grooving dancing the whole night long dancing the whole night.

I'm dancing, I'm dancing keep dancing, keep dancing dancing the whole night.

Dressing to kill facing the night crossing the line moving so fast I'm leaving all my troubles behind

I'm dancing this feeling keeps me moving dancing the whole night I'm dancing this feeling keeps me grooving dancing the whole night long dancing the whole night.
