

Can't Let Go

FFH

You're going in circles
Trying to get it done
You're stuck in quicksand
Still trying to run

Can't you see I'm all you'll ever need
Just believe that I won't ever leave

I can't let go
I can't let you down
I don't even know how
You can run and you can hide
But you'll never be alone
Cause I can't let go

You've been holding your breath now
Trying to swim for the shore
Your mind's set on fighting
But who knows what for
I am all, all you'll ever need
Can't you see I'm all you'll ever need
It's not that bad to believe
In something you can't see

Give it up now, don't be crazy
You can jump, but you won't make it
Step back long enough to see
I have made you free in me
