

Take Me As I Am

FFH

The sun is sinking low and my mind wanders to You
And all the goodness that You gave when
You gave your life away
The sun is sinking low and I am thinking of You
And the price You paid just to let me live,
Let me live another day
In this world you made
Enjoying it all the way, and I say...

Take me, take me as I am
Show me, show me what I am to be
Write for me, write for me the melody
Take me as I am

The sun is sinking low and I am on my knees again
Saying that I'll go wherever you want me to go
The sun is sinking low and
I kneel beside my bed again
Thank you for today, praying for tomorrow
That you'll hold my hand
I can't make it all alone, so I say...

Take me, take me as I am
Show me, show me what I am to be
Write for me, write for me the melody
Take me as I am
