

The Long Haul

FFH

It used to be second nature to me
To want to turn and walk away
Since I met you those days are gone
Now I want to stay, and say

I'm in for the long haul
Bring on the fight
I will, I will stand tall
With all my might
And face the wind and face the rain
And even the pain
Through it all
I'm in for the long haul

So many people just packing it in
They don't give it half a chance
Not me and you, we've got it all
And it's gonna last
Oh yeah, bring it on 'cause

For the ride of my life
With you by my side
Holding on tight, because
Our guiding light is the Father
And we'll be alright
