

You Write The Words

FFH

I don't know what to say
That hasn't already been said
I don't know what to write
That hasn't already been read
I don't know what to play
That You haven't already heard
So here's my song, You write the words
Here's my heart, You write the words

"Amazing Grace" has already been written
"Jesus saves" has been done before
And the "Hallelujah Chorus"
Has been sung a million times or more
So who am I to make any difference
Tell me why I pour out my heart
And struggle for the words
That I know might not go very far

I don't know what to say
That hasn't already been said
I don't know what to write
That hasn't already been read
I don't know what to play
That You haven't already heard
So here's my song, You write the words
Here's my heart, You write the words

There are days when I sing for the masses
When my songs get repeated back to me by thousands
And there are days when I know
That the only one who hears me is You
So what do I do - when

I don't know what to say
That hasn't already been said
I don't know what to write
That hasn't already been read
I don't know what to play
That You haven't already heard
So here's my song, You write the words
Here's my heart, You write the words

Here's my life you write the words
