

Vengeance

FGFC820

Swirling all around you
Are the rumors people spread
Vicious lies that terrorize
And fill their swollen heads

They hide behind computer screens
Planning their attack
Smiling eyes disguise their lies
To stab you in the back

Don't back down
This is everything you've waited for
Stand your ground
And take what you deserve from life

Don't back down
This could be your last chance
Stand your ground
You gotta get up and fight

They'll tear you down to elevate
Themselves at any cost
Criticize, jeopardize
And celebrate your loss

When someone disrespects you
You don't have to turn away
A loaded fist, a rusty blade
Can help you dull the pain
