

You burn in the spotlight
Live your life so that everyone will see
Destroy all that you can't have
Devoid of all sympathy

Everyone has a purpose
A means to an end and nothing more
Sacrifice the innocents
Isn't that what friends are for?

I will be your savior
I will wash away your sins
I will give you shelter
From the evil that lies within

Embrace your absolution
Prepare to receive your faith
I am the final solution
I will control your fate

Blind to emotion
You hide your pain so well
Lies and transgressions
Your soul is an empty shell
