

Elements Combined

Fiction Family

To the girl I told to run away
The ghost I saw a hundred times a day
You weren't like me
No you weren't afraid

You are elements combined
Earth, air, fire, wine
Someday you'll be mine
Elements combined

You stuck around but we didn't fly
Went down beyond him behind my eyes
I only hope that you realize

You are elements combined
Earth, air, fire, wine
Someday you'll be mine
Someday you'll be mine

I bury all excuse
Burn all the reasons why
I can't be everything you want
Everything you need

You're elements combined
You're elements combined

We talk a lot but it's always small
Tiny breaks that make a giant wall
I hope these words are a wrecking ball

You are elements combined
Earth, air, fire and wine
Someday you'll be mine

Cause you are elements combined
Earth, air, fire, wine
Someday you'll be mine
