

Give Me Back My Girl

Fiction Family

I can feel it now
I can feel my heart again
I thought I lost myself
I could feel it caving in

You can keep your venom saints
Just give me back my girl

When the city's dark
With her melancholy chords
I can feel her hollow skin
As thin as billboards

You can win the poison race
Just give me back my girl
You can have LA
Just give me back my girl

I feel it creeping in
Breaking my heart again
I don't know who I've been
Feels like I'm losing it, oh oh oh

You can have Los Angeles, just give me back my girl

Feel like I'll never be good enough
Feel like I'll never be cool enough, sometimes
But I remember that was never the point
Cause I don't ever wanna lose your love
I just want wanna know we're shining on the inside

Feel like I'm losing her
Like we'll never be what we were
Ever since the bubble burst
Feels like we're in reverse, oh oh oh

You can have Los Angeles, just give me back my girl
You can keep your angels, just give me back my girl

You shine brighter than the city, love (8x)

Feels like I'm losing you
Like we're being torn in two
After all that we've been through
Is there nothing that I can do?
Oh oh oh

You can have Los Angeles, just give me back my girl
You can keep your angels, just give me back my girl
You can have Los Angeles, just give me back my girl
You can have the basin, just give me back my girl
