

Look For Me Baby

Fiction Family

What you hold dear
Starts to disappear
You can tell what you trust
By the things that you fear

You can look for me, baby
Oh baby, I'll be long gone

Who warned you
You white washed hue?
To flee from the raft
As all men do

You can look for me, baby
Oh baby, I'll be long gone

Everybody knows, everybody knows
That I'm the fight, that can only end it blown
You can say I showed a go
That I only go to shows

Yeah, you can give my regards
To your house of cards
You're dead end stars
And your pharisee shards

You can look for me, baby
Oh baby, I'll be long gone

(Look for me, baby)
Oh baby, I'll be long
(Look for me, baby)
Oh baby, I'll be long gone
