

Back of Beyond

Fiddler's Green

Listen to me for a while
I've gotta tell you something weird
I guess that I have heard it before

Again it's knocking at my door

Cause something there's a voice in my head
Especially when I go to bed
And sometimes there's a voice in my bed
I shouldn't listen to my head

Words that sound so familiar
Though I have never heard them before
Words that sound so peculiar
Like waves on a distant shore

Right there
At the back of beyond
The back of beyond of your dreams
Right there
If you pay the fare
You're at the back of beyond of your dreams
