

Each Time Is A New Time

Field Music

This (time) is not the only time
This (time) could be over soon
I'll put my faith in experience
And holding on to you

If you sleep
It'll be better
I'll be 'round
Before you lift your eyes
And you'll know
Know I'll always be here
And if you can wait
A little while longer
We could still have time

This (time) is no time for guarantees
This is not a hand for someone else
I'll be an arm across your door
Holding on to you

If you sleep
It'll be better
I'll be 'round
And you'll know
Know I'll always be here
And if you can wait
A little while longer
We could still have time
