SUMERLAND

your tempting me to all of life and all its pleasure take me to the dream to the highs and the depths of my soul here we free thoughts inside giving up for giving time but a world without end where no soul can descend there will be no sumertime how lost lifes been afraid of waking up so afraid to take the dream
take the dream
take the dream
take the dream
shapes of angels the night casts lie dead but dreaming in my past and their here they want to meet you they want to play with you so take the dream
take the dream
take the dream
can't break free
i can't break free and i hear them call they want to plauge you their here once more they want to laywith you they want to take you to the shame of your past
take the dream
take me lead me far away take me there i'll fade away but i can't hide and i cannot die and i cannot die
i take the dream
take the dream
we're but fools of our fate on this earth i shall wait by the roots of my soul i am loosing control
take the dream
the sleepers in you shapes of angels so deep within you feel your soul drowning unloosen your soul drowning drowning - drowning in waters of reality
tell me tell me thoughts of god do dreams fall from god
break free thoughts all gone we're all come down take me
thoughts of god

your ticket out a here
take me out a here - take me
